

Running Away

Where will I run from here
Maybe a place of my own
Where I can hideaway from the fear
By myself but never alone

I Oh I am runnin' away to Home

There must be someplace to go
Far, far away from here
Where pain don't hurt and tears don't flow
Someplace You spoke into life for me

I oh I am runnin' away to home

HalleluYah, You have risen
HalleluYah, I am Yours
HalleluYah, You have given
A place that I can call my own
And I'm runnin' away to home
